

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (SCOTLAND)
ACT 1997

NOTICE

MORAY COUNCIL (WOODLAND AT DAMHEAD COTTAGE, KINLOSS) REVOCATION OF TREE PRESERVATION
ORDER 2023

MORAY COUNCIL, as Planning Authority, acting under Section 160 and 275(8) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 and other powers enabling it to do so hereby gives notice that on 4th April 2023 it made a Tree Preservation Order known as Moray Council (Woodland at Damhead Cottage, Kinloss) Revocation of Tree Preservation Order 2023.

The effect of the Order will be to revoke The Moray Council (Woodland at Damhead Cottage, Kinloss) Tree Preservation Order 2008. The grounds for making the Revocation Order are that consent has been granted on the site for residential development, which established the principle of woodland removal and will have an impact on the amenity of the woodland. Therefore, the woodland no longer meets the terms for which the Tree Preservation Order was originally served.

A copy of the order has been deposited at Elgin Library, Elgin, IV30 1HS and is available for inspection free of charge during opening hours. A copy of the Order is also available for inspection at on the Council's Planning Consultations web page http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray_standard/page_100442.html until 15th May 2023. If you have any queries please email localdevelopmentplan@moray.gov.uk or telephone Darren Westmacott, Planning Officer on 01343 563358.

Representations in relation to the Order may be made in writing to Strategic Planning and Development, Council Offices, High Street, Elgin, Moray, IV30 1BX or by email at the email address shown above no later than 15th May 2023. Representations must state the grounds on which they are made and the particular trees to which they relate.
